

Half Marathon and Swatchta Hi Seva” campaign conducted by SSCS&T

Dated: 21.09.2017

The Department of Science, Technology & Climate Change has conducted a “Half Marathon” with the aim as “SWATCHTA HI SEVA” on dated 21.09.2017. The marathon was started from Zero Point, Rumtek, East Sikkim and run was end at Sikkim Science Center, Marchak, Ranipool. The program was inaugurated by Dr. K. Jayakumar, Principal Secretary with informative speech. The marathon was started after flagged off by Chief Guest, Dr. K. Jaykumar. In the programme the following senior officials were also participated viz. Mrs. Hemlata Basnett, Special Secretary, Additional Directors, Under Secretary, ASO etc. Total 60 officials staff of DST&CC participated in the marathon and cleaning campaign at Sikkim Science Center, Marchak. The principal Secretary along with employees also took oath and pledged to uphold and embrace altitudes and behavior commensurate with the campaign.

On the second day, the campaign was organized at Biotechnology Application and Research Centre, Sajong, Rumtek premises.

