

Sikkim State Council of Science and Technology, Vigyan Bhawanconferred with the Highest Independent Platinum Smart Governance Award 2017

Dated: 9th Sept. 2017

The online knowledge repository <http://indiaskillpedia.com>, also accessible using <http://indiatechpedia.com> developed by the skill mission team and Sikkim State Council of Science and Technology had been selected for the Skoch Order of Merit Award 2017. The team from Sikkim State Council of Science and Technology has been conferred with PLATINUM SMART GOVERNANCE AWARD 2017 on 9th Sept. 2017 at the 49th Skoch Summit held at Constitution Club of India Rafi Marg in New Delhi which is the highest independent honour in India.

600 Delegates from 25 States, 12 Central Ministries, 150 Districts, 100 Cities and several Enterprises, Banks, Academia, Consultants and Media has participated in this India's largest Governance Leadership Summit.

IndiaSkillPedia is a Knowledge Repository with authoring systems, crowd sourcing features and service delivery portal aimed at imparting know how for assimilating concepts, understanding applications, developing competencies, engaging in activities for prototyping products and solutions and further progress to establish start-ups that undertake production, manufacturing and service delivery.

The objectives sought to be achieved include, sharing and facilitating skill aspirants, entrepreneurs, startups harness knowledge and innovation through collaboration; building individual and organizational competencies and capacities and facilitating the ushering in of technological and industrial competitiveness of the Indian Industries.

Ministry of Development of North Eastern Region is also encouraging the efforts taken by our Sikkim Skill Mission Team and Sikkim State Council of Science and Technology. Efforts are being pursued to collaborate with authors, domain experts, industries, training partners to identify, source, develop and upload contents in the portal to benefit the ambitious talent pool of young persons in the State and the nation at large

